

Monash Online Guide for Rural Students

www.adm.monash.edu/equity-diversity/student-equity/pubs/rural/

Rural students are often faced with significant changes in study modes, living conditions, social activities and general support once they reach university.

Specific information is available on the web at www.adm.monash.edu/equity-diversity/student-equity/pubs/rural/, answering most frequently asked questions, giving you an insight into experiences of other rural students and learning how best to manage your studies and other activities while at university.

The online guide provides information on

- Student profiles – rural student stories
- Before you arrive
- Differences between school and university
- Independence at university
- A typical day at university
- What am I expected to do in a lecture?
- What do I do in a tutorial and what about practical sessions?
- Assessment – what does it involve
- Learning at university – how to study
- Living away from home – the joys and pitfalls
- Transport and parking
- Finance, fees, scholarships and student employment

